SITUATION

Carradale is situated on the Mull of Kintyre close to the main town Campbeltown. Its not far from the ferry to the isle of Arran of Gigha. The famous Machrahanish golf course is also nearby. The village has a shop and post office.

The lovely functioning harbour in Carradale is lined with nets, floats, ropes, lobster pots, and moored fishing boats. The community also features a 9-hole golf course. A popular attraction is the broad expanse of a sandy beach. The Kintyre 66 (K66) is an exciting new route that will help you discover one of Scotland's most scenic regions. The "Kintyre Way" passes through the Carradale region, and there is a well-known caravan park nearby. This combined with the draw of the nearby Mull of Kintyre, Campbeltown, Isle of Gigha, and Machrihanish - for many a "must see" on the South Argyll trip - draws tourists to the area, ensuring a continual stream of visitors.

THE PROPERTY AND BUSINESS

Glen Pub is a family-run bistro-style bar and restaurant that serves fresh food that is sourced locally. The building is a single-story brick structure. The Glen Bar & Restaurant's location will appeal to a variety of applicants.

The business has a wonderful reputation for providing residents, tourists, and passersby quality food. The inside of the building, which offers a restaurant, bar, and a private event area, is attractively furnished. It is possible to combine individual table and seating layouts to suit sizable dining gatherings. The restaurant and function room can accommodate 120 covers.

The property also benefits from having baby changing facilities and disabled toilets.
