INDUSTRIAL & LOGISTICS PLOTS UP TO 12 ACRES

Brought forward by Lindum Group, outline planning is currently being sought across Stratum Park for employment use. Plots are offered for sale or lease, and will be ready for immediate development.

Stratum Park enjoys a prime location at the intersection of the A18 and M181 in Scunthorpe, Lincolnshire. Major occupiers in the area include British Steel, Wren Kitchens, OSI Food Solutions, Jotun Paints, 2 Sisters Food Group, and Canpack.

The location is ideal for logistics, with Hull, Sheffield, Leeds, York, and Lincoln all within an hour's drive by van, and over 34.5 million people accessible within 4.5 hours by HGV. Positioned on a main route into Scunthorpe, Stratum Park also offers roadside retail potential, subject to planning.

Stratum Park builds on the success of the nearby Gallagher Park retail destination, home to Tesco Extra, Aldi, TK Maxx, and B&Q. Opposite the A18 are additional amenities, including drive-thru restaurants, fast food outlets, a hotel, and the Scunthorpe United stadium.

LOCATION

Situated at the junction of the A18 and the M181, Stratum Park is well-placed to provide regional and national access.

Occupiers will enjoy excellent access to the most populous urban areas of the North, the East Coast, and the Midlands.

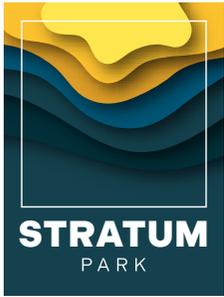

AT THE HEART OF THE LINCOLNSHIRE LAKES

Located immediately adjacent to Stratum Park to the west and south of Scunthorpe, Lincolnshire Lakes is an ambitious and transformative urban project.

Lincolnshire Lakes will significantly boost Stratum Park as a location of strategic importance within the region. The £1.2 billion initiative aims to create several vibrant and sustainable communities by harnessing the region's natural assets, including its network of lakes and waterways.

Some 6,000 homes are currently planned for Lincolnshire Lakes, mainly clustered along the M181. The development is being actively promoted by the local authorities, with the homes being delivered within the next five years.

DIRECT ACCESS TO CONSUMER MARKETS

The cities of Hull, Sheffield, Leeds, York and Lincoln all fall within 90 minutes by van, reaching a massive 8.4 million consumers in that time.
