Description

The site comprises a broadly rectangular parcel of land measuring circa 6.0 acres. Its most recent use has been as a vehicle storage facility.

The site is secured with Heras fencing but an incoming occupier will have the opportunity to make their own improvements should they wish to.

A letting of the whole or part of the site is possible with subdivision of the available area.

Additional land may be available potentially.

Planning

Occupiers will be required to take the site as is, there will be no planning submission to regularise the use for open storage.

Prospective tenants are to make their own enquiries with local planning authority to establish whether or not their proposed use is acceptable.
