Description

8-10 Commercial Way offers versatile office accommodation in a prominent and accessible town centre location. The office space is arranged over two floors and benefits from its own entrance directly onto Woking's busiest retail thoroughfare, Commercial Way.

Both the first and second floors provide open plan layouts with excellent levels of natural light, ideal for creative, professional or administrative uses. The specification includes suspended lighting, perimeter trunking and carpeting throughout. The layout provides scope for a variety of configurations or departmental division.

Location

Situated in central Woking, the offices benefit from direct access to a bustling commercial environment with immediate proximity to national retailers, local amenities and strong footfall. Woking station is a short walk away, offering frequent fast services to London Waterloo (approx. 25 minutes), making the property ideal for occupiers requiring good connectivity.
