LAND AT BROUGHTY FERRY COURT, BALDOVIE ROAD, DUNDEE

LOCATION

Dundee is located on the East Coast of Scotland approximately mid-way between Aberdeen, (circa 105 km (65 miles) to the north and Edinburgh, circa 96 km (60 miles) to the south) overlooking the Tay Estuary and has a resident population of circa 155,000 persons and a catchment of some 235,000 persons (Source: Focus).

Dundee is Scotland's fourth largest City and is the regional centre for employment, services and retailing within Tayside. The City has its own airport with daily flights to London Heathrow and sits on the main East Coast Railway Line which runs services into London (Kings Cross).

The property is situated on the periphery of the Douglas Estate in an area comprising both residential and commercial developments.

The site is positioned between residential properties at Broughty Ferry Court to the east, commercial properties to the west, and a service yard to the north-east, with the Dighty Burn running along the northern boundary of the property.

DESCRIPTION

The subject comprises a secure hard standing yard which has previously been used for car parking and storage but could be used for a variety of commercial uses.

The site is accessible via Balunie Drive and benefits from clearly defined boundaries marked by stone walls, timber fencing and beech hedging.

As well as continuation of commercial use as a yard the site offers development potential.

Planning permission in principle has been granted for the construction of a single dwelling with further information available on Dundee City Council planning portal under reference 25/00205/PPPL
